THE SAD DEATH OF MRS. QUARLES

Succumbs to Typhoid Fever at Hallsboro.

RELATIVES CONTRACT DISEASE

Walter Johnson Fined for Assaulting Lee Ridout-Other News from Southside

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, 1102 Hull Street The death in Hallsboro, Chesterfield county, on Tuesday, of Mrs. Georgid Turpin Quarles, from typhoid fever, which has so afflicted this family, causes universal sorrow in Manchester, where she was known and loved. The remains were yesterday afternoon taken to Bethel Church, where, beside her brother Thomas and sister Nannie, they were laid to rest. Quarles came from her home

Mrs. Quaries came from her home, South Boston, a few weeks ago to nurse her mother, who had contracted typhoid fever in nursing her son, Thomas and daughter, Nannia, both of whom died in the city of Washington a few months ago, they having contracted the terrible disease from another son, Philip, while on a visit to his father's home at this place, with his young bride.

While it was thought by all that it was an exceedingly dengerous undertaking for one as frail as Mrs. Quarles to atan exceedingly dangerous undertaking for one as frail as Mrs. Quarles to attempt the arduous and dangerous task of nursing her mother, although to a certain extent Mrs. Turpin was convalesing, yet Mrs. Quarles' devotion was such that she insisted on remaining with Mrs. Turpin until she was entirely recovered.

About two weeks ago, when the physician was called to see Mrs. Quaries he pronounced her malady typhoid fever, and while the very best medical skill and best trained nurses have attended her, the terrible disease could not be checked

Mrs. Quarles leaves two little children.

Mrs. Quaries leaves two little children, a little boy and girl, one, little Nannie, now lies very ill at the same home with the same dread fever.

Mr. Quaries has been for several days at the bedside of both wife and child, and he, with Mr. Turpin's family, have the tender sympathy of all the people in this community.

MSSAULT CASE.

Walter Johnson, brother of Officer C.

Walter Johnson, brother of Officer C. M. Johnson, of the First Police District M. Johnson, of the First Police District Richmond, was yesterday morning fined $5 and costs by Mayor Maurice for assaulting Lee Rideout, a young white man employed in Petersburg, yet formerly of Bichmond. The cause of the fight between the two men is supposed to have resulted from undue intimacy between Rideout and the wife of Officer Johnson. Rideout is alleged to have been the direct cause of the divorce preceedings instituted some time ago. Johnson ings instituted some time ago. Johnson now has a divorce from his wife, while she is suing him for alimony. Rideout admitted in court having been in her com pany at Forest Hill Park Tuesday, and was in Petersburg with her several days

A GOOD START.

Two Councilmen, vesterday, talking

Two Councilmen yesterday talking over the needs of the city expressed the desire to see more citizens come to them and let them know what they wanted. One of the gentlemen said that he was there to do the people's bidding who placed him in the position, and he warted them to come to him and even advice in matters pertaining to the welfare of Manchester. The other gentleman, speak-ing on the cow ordinance, which beyond a doubt will be presented at the next meeting of the body, said he thought the ritizens for it and those opposed to its passage should come to the meeting of the body and there state their case. He wanted to see them argue the case while the Councilmen simply acted as jurors. This will be something entirely new and novel to happen in the Council Chamber when opposing factions of the citizens come and speak on a question, yet it seems nothing but right and proper that they should be allowed to do this.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILL., July 16.—Two rounds of 18 holes each, match play, were played by the contestants for the amateur golf championship at Glenview to-day, under weather conditions that could not have been worse. The golfers, who, as a rule, have shown the most consistent form, worked their way through the contests.

Thorp, the Harvard professor, was put out of the running in the morning by a youngster, Nathaniel Moore, but the latter was defeated in the afternoon play by Walter Egan, last year's runner-up to Travis. If Egan wins to-morrow's hard contest with C. A. Ominston, of Pittsburg, he stands an excellent chance of reaching the finals. Omiston's play of reaching the finals. Omiston's play, although he won both of to-day's contests, was far from equalling yesterday's high standard.

Two matches that will be watched with much interest to-morrow are those between Travis and E. M. Byers, of Pitts-burg, and Dr. L. L. Harban, of Columbia, and H. Chandler, Egan, of Exmore. The latter in his morning game to-day made a medal score of 38 for the first nine holes, four strokes under Bogev and won the match at the twelfth hole eight strokes under Bogey. Egan show-ed a form that has seldom been equalled. His play fell off somewhat during the afternoon under slightly improved weather conditions, but he held the game safe from the start. tion will grace some section of Richmond.

It was learned last night that the Horse Show Association was seriously contemplating the purchase of one of the best of these buildings that may be for sale and bring it here for their use. This would be the quickest way to get a first-class building, such as the Horse Show Association would like to have, and it would probably cost much less. The idea is that the building could be taken down, loaded upon flat cars and brought here. The reinstatement of the structure would take but a little time.

It is expected that the structure will be located near the West-End Park, Negotiations are said to be going on now for the purchase of an admirable lot near the Reservoir.

One of the best attractions at the West-End Park is the vitagraph and grapho-phone performance conducted by Messrs. John A. Michael.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

BRODNAX, VA., July 16.—Mr John

A. Michael, postmaster at this place, died Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. His death was caused by the rupture of a blood vessel of the brain. He had been in declining health for some time. The remains were laid at rest in the old family burying ground near Lawrence-ville, Va. As near as his circumstances would allow he lived at peace with all mankind, and "wore the white flower of a blameless life."
